THE WEEKLY SUN.

B A L T I M O R E

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,

BY A. S. ABLE & CO.,

FROM THE "SUN IRON BUILDING,"

At the S. E. corner of Baltimore and South sts.

Terms Cash in Advance:

For One Copy for Six Months or less.....$1 00
For One Copy for One Year..... 1 50

THE WEEKLY SUN will renew its best efforts as a first-class News and Literary Journal. Every improvement of modern journalism—by which it is distinguished—will be maintained, and such attention be given to its several departments as will insure their continued interest, and whatever may be necessary to render them more complete will not be lost sight of.

Through no other medium can families and individuals in the towns and villages and rural districts of the country be so well supplied with proper literature, and a full knowledge of the world's whole news, from week to week.

MAKE UP CLUBS.

While the WEEKLY SUN is afforded at the low rate of $1 50 per annum to single subscribers, the CLUB rates are still lower, carrying the price down as low as one dollar per year where twenty-five copies or more are taken at one post office at a time, viz:

Club of Six Copies, One Year..... $8 00
Club of Twelve Copies, One Year..... 15 00
Club of Fifteen Copies, One Year..... 18 00
Club of Twenty Copies, One Year..... 22 00
Club of Twenty-five Copies, One Year..... 25 00
Club of Thirty-five Copies, One Year..... 35 00

Parties, then, should get up CLUBS in their towns, villages and neighborhoods, and thus secure the advantage of these very low rates. Any postmaster or storekeeper in the county may easily accomplish this among his acquaintances, or any active person, male or female, do the same. The regular diffusion of the light and intelligence which such a journal affords will be a moral and social advantage in any neighborhood.

To those parties getting up clubs for the WEEKLY SUN, sent to one post office, we will mail hereafter to the address of any one sending us

A CLUB OF TWELVE SUBSCRIBERS

An extra copy of the Weekly Sun, gratis, for one year; for a

CLUB OF TWENTY SUBSCRIBERS

We will send a copy of The Daily and Weekly Sun for six months; for a

LORILLARD'S "EUREKA" SMOKING TOBACCO is an excellent article of granulated Virginia; when ever introduced it is universally admired. It is put up in handsome muslin bags, in which orders for Meerschaum Pipes are daily packed.

LORILLARD'S YACHT CLUB SMOKING TOBACCO is made of the choicest leaf grown; it is anti-nervous in its effects, as the Nicotine has been extracted; it leaves no disagreeable taste after smoking; it is very mild, light in color and weight, hence one pound will last as long as 3 of ordinary tobacco. In this brand we also pack orders every day for first quality Meerschaum Pipes. Try it and convince yourselves it is all it claims to be, "THE FINEST OF ALL."

LORILLARD'S CENTURY CHEWING TOBACCO. This brand of Fine Cut chewing tobacco has no equal or superior any where. It is without doubt the best chewing tobacco in the country.

LORILLARD'S SNUFFS have now been in general use in the United States over 110 years, and still acknowledged "the best" wherever used.

If your storekeeper does not have these articles for sale, ask him to get them; they are sold by respectable jobbers almost everywhere.

THE MISER'S STORY.

"By the grace of God, I am what I am." I was born in London, and I remember nothing but poverty—stalking crime and absolute want. The houses where I lived were in various stages of filth and decay. Whether the old blear eyed man who kicked and commanded me was my father I never knew. Whether the woman who sometimes fed and often beat me was my mother, I cannot say. All I know is, that I had a miserable drag about life of it, going round after cold victuals, knocking smaller boys down to get the contents of their broken baskets, and hunting for old rags in the gutter.

I suppose I was rather a good looking boy; they call me good looking now for an old man. I know I was smart, comparing myself with children as I see them.

Of course I was like the rest of my class, I could fight a little, swear a little and steal a little, and eat a good deal, that is, when I got the chance, which was seldom. I was ignorant—I didn't know one letter from another, and didn't want to. What did I care about education—I, who never saw a book from one years' end to another? And love, gratitude, hope, I could of course understand neither. Nobody loved me, therefore I loved nobody.—Nobody had ever made me grateful—had ever held out hope to me.

Some strange impulse was given me one day. I waked up, sprang from my bundle of straw, and involuntary the words came from my lips, "I am going to do something to-day." What that something was, I had not the remotest idea, but I put on my apologies for clothes, and sallied out in my vagabond way whistling, caring for nobody.

It was about noon, and I had not yet tasted a mouthful of food. I was hungry, and skulked about grocery shops, hoping I could get an opportunity to take something that would stay my appetite, till I felt in the humor for begging. Passing round the corner of a public street, I saw a genteel-looking man, standing at his horse's head, gazing about him somewhat perplexed. "Boy," he cried, "won't you take care of my horse for half an hour?"

"Yes sir," said I.

I think it was the first time that I ever put on the "sir."

"There's a man!" he exclaimed. I've got considerable fruit here and you must guard it well. "Here's a couple of peaches for you; just stand here quietly—nobody'll disturb you."

He went away, and I stood for a while till I was tired. Then, thinks I, "I'll get a hatful of fruit and run." But for the first time I felt an instinct of shame at the suggestion.

"He trusted me—he saw I was a mean looking fellow, too; but he trusted me and I won't abuse his kindness."

Something like this reasoning ran in my head, and I squatted down on the curb stone feeling the importance of an honorable trust as I had never felt such a thing before. Presently some of my fellows came along and hailed me. I told them to go on. They peered about the cart, and saw the sunny faces of the peaches. "We'll have some of them," they said.

"No you won't" says I, "I'm put in charge here, and I won't see the first thing stole." With that they began a rumpus. They reached over the cart. I struck them, and used such efforts that they all came pell-mell upon me, and we fought till the blood came; but I vanquished them.

Just then out came the proprietor. "What's the matter?" says he.

"Oh, nothing; only I had to fight for your stuff here," says I.

"You did, eh? You've got a black eye for it."

"No matter," says I. "I mean them boys shouldn't steal a peach, and they didn't neither."

"Well, youv'e good pluck—here's a crown for you."

My eyes stood out. "A whole crown," says I.

"Yes; do what you please with it, but I'd advise you to buy a pair of shoes."

"Thank you, says I, with a beating heart. It pays to be good don't it?"

He smiled a curious smile, asked me several questions, and ended by taking me home with him.

Home! I thought I was in heaven, albeit I have seldom heard of such a place. My heart beat heavily every time I dared put my foot upon those rich carpets. The mirrors were some thing new to me. The next day there came a man to see me. I was washed clean and had on a good suit of clothes. Says he "Youngster, I am going to where you live, and probably shall make a bargain with your people. I want a boy, just such a bold clever boy as you are, and if you behave yourself, I promise you that you shall have as pleasant a home as you desire."

Well, that was good. I hardly dared to speak or breathe, for fear of breaking the illusion. I never was so happy as I was that day. They gave me light tasks to do, I wished they were more important. From that day I was treated as one of the household. The man was a widower, and had no children; consequently, I became to him as a son. He educated me handsomely, and when I was twenty one he died, and left me three thousand pounds.

Well, I considered myself a rich man. I gloated over my wealth; it became an idol to me. How to increase it was my first desire. I consulted competent men, and under their counsel I put my money out on interest, bought stocks and mortgages.

I grew wealthier; my business (my benefactor had stocked me a fancy shop) prospered, and I was in a fair way, I thought, to marry Lucy Manning.

Sweet Lucy Manning! the most artless, winning maiden in all the world to me. I loved her deeply, dearly, She was blue-eyed, auburn-haired, her disposition was that of an angel, and I had plighted my vows to her.

One night I was invited to the house of a prosperous merchant, and there I met a siren in the person of his niece, a black eyed girl, whose charms and whose fortunes were equally splendid. She was an heiress in her own right, was beautiful and accomplished.

Heavens, what a voice was hers—pure, clear, sweet, ravishing! I was charmed, and she was pleased with me. Alas, I met her too often!

In her presence I forgot my gentle Lucy; she magnetized, thrawled me.

It was triumph to feel that so beautiful, gifted, and wealthy a woman loved me—me, who had been brought up in the purleous of a city, who had known misery and corruption all the first years of my life.

Gradually I broke off my intimacy with Lucy. I received no token from her, she was too proud. But that cheek grew pale, that eye languid, and though I seldom met her, I knew in my heart that she was suffering, and branded myself a villain.

At last she knew with certainty that I was to marry Miss Bellair. She sent me a letter, a touching letter, not one word of upbraiding nor one of regret. Oh, what a noble soul I wounded!—But she could calmly wish me joy, though the effort made her heart bleed. I knew it did.

I tried however to forget her. I could not. Even at my magnificent wedding, when my bride stood before me, radiant in rich fabrics and glittering diamonds, the white face of poor Lucy glided in between, and made my heart throb guiltily. Oh, how rich I grew! Year after year I added to my gold. My miserly disposition began to manifest itself soon after my marriage. I carried my gold first to banks, and then to my own private safes.

I put constraint on my wife, for very generously she had made over her whole fortune to me, and began to grumble at the expenses. I made our living so frugal that she remonstrated, and finally run up large bills where and when she pleased. Against this I protested, and we had open quarrels more than once.

My clothes grew shabby, I could not afford to buy new ones, although the interest of my investments was more than I could possibly spend for rational living.

I grew finally dissatisfied with everything but my money. I neglected my wife, and grew careless of her society. Several gentlemen came to my house, among them a would-be author and celebrity. He came, I thought too often for my good name, and I ordered my wife to discontinue his company. She refused and I locked her in her room. How she managed to set herself free I never knew; but in the evening, when I returned, she was gone from the house. That caused me some uneasiness; not much, for I was soon absorbed in taking account of my gains.

It was, perhaps, nine in the evening, I had just managed to take up a paper for a moment to read out its business details, when the door opened, and in came my wife, dressed bewitchingly, as if just from an evening concert, followed by that moustached celebrity.—"Good evening, my dear," she said in the coldest way imaginable, and placed a chair fot her friend. "Stop!" I cried; my jealousy aroused; "that man sits not down in my house."

"That man—a gentleman and my friend, shall sit here if I please!" said my wife, firmly.

My passion was excited then as it never was before, and I collared the scoundrel. He was my match; but my wife put a dirk-knife that she drew from a cane into his hand, and he stabbed me. I fainted, and I remembered nothing more till I found myself on a bed in my own chamber, watched over by my housekeeper.

"Where are they?" I gasped.

"Gone!" was all she said.

It occurred to me then, like a flash of lightning, that somebody was near me at the time I was wounded, that my keys were about my person, and that I had been robbed, perhaps, of all my available property.

The thought threw me into an agony of fear. I ordered my clothes to be brought to me. The keys were there. Taking one of them out, I told Mrs. Hale, my housekeeper to go to my safe, and bring me the papers that were there. She returned, her face white with terror, to say there was nothing there, all the little doors were open.

"Robbed! robbed!" I yelled with imprecations, and again my senses deserted me.

Brain fever ensued. For weeks I lay deprived of reason, literally treading the verge of the grave. One morning I was conscious only of a sinking, deadly feeling, as I feebly opened my eyes. Was it an angel I saw standing beside me, her soft eyes full of pity, looking down upon me with the most commiserating gentleness. For a moment I thought I might be in heaven; but no, I reasoned with myself—My treasure was all of the earth, earthly. Again I opened my dim eyes. The vision seemed wavering now, but oh, did it not wear the beauty of sweet Lucy Manning? A quiet, unutterable peace took possession of my entire being. I forgot wealth, health, everything. My past life seemed blotted out, and I was again innocent, untouched by the griping hand of avarice, true, loving, and loved—and Lucy Manning was my idol.

But I recovered slowly and at last, as my strength surely returned I missed her. As soon as she saw I could be left with safety, she had left me; and oh, what a blank—the dreadful blank! I wondered around my rooms now so desolate, and saw many evidences of my miserly habits.

I know not why, but towards my wife my feelings seemed to have undergone a revulsion. I fear I hated her. She had nearly beggared me, had deceived and shattered my health, destroyed all my hopes.

Months passed before I was able to estimate the damage that had been done me. Every means that could be put forth were used for the discovery of my money, but all in vain.

One night I sat by the fire, a cheerless, disappointed, and lonely man. I had been thinking thoughts that only burned my brain, but did not purify my heart. 'If I had only married sweet Lucy,' I said, again and again, 'all this had not been so.'

My housekeeper came in with a letter—an unusual large package it was, and as it bore a foreign postmark, I opened it with a trembling hand?—What was that? A rustling, crumpled bank-note! Another and another came forth, until there laid upon my knees twenty bills of the largest denomination. A few trembling lines accompanied them:

"MY HUSBAND: I am dying! My disease—there is no need in telling you. Forgive me, and accept the enclosed as a faint effort toward restitution. It is not much over half of what we took from the safe. The rest is—I know not where. I am deserted. Farewell, forever!"

An icy chill thrilled me. It seemed as if her spectral presence was near me. I shuddered as I rolled the bills together, and threw them across the room.

"Lie there, curse of my soul!" I cried. "Lie there till I have conquered myself! ay, if the victory is not won till you are rotten!"

I shut the door and sealed it, and for six months I toiled like a penniless man, till I had partially redeemed myself By managing cautiously, I placed my business on a successful footing, and began life again, a new man.

It took many a year to wear off my old habits of parsimony, but every effort gave me a new and agreeable surprise. Meantime Lucy Manning became dearer to me than she had ever been in the flush of youth. I entreated her forgiveness! humbled myself to a confession, tested myself in all ways, and convinced her at last that I was as worthy now as once I was only in seeming.

On the day of my wedding, I opened the door the sealed. The banknotes lay where I had flung them. I took them up with the pride of a conquerer, and placing them in her hands, exclaimed, "They are now no longer my masters; use them as you will."

Now I am a man!—redeemed from the thralldom of covetousness. I have three blooming children, Lucy is an angel of goodness, and I write myself as I did at the beginning, "By the grace of God, I am what I am."

LADIES' READING.

Drop Biscuit: Cup of milk, one egg, cup of flour, one spoonful of melted butter and a little salt. Bake in a hot oven, and eat as soon as possible.

Very Nice Biscuit: One quart of milk raised; when light, add one cup of butter, one egg, one tablespoonful of white sugar, half teaspoonful of soda; raise again; rollthin and bake quickly.

Rye Drop Cake: One pint of milk and three eggs, a tablespoonful of sugar and a salt spoonful of salt. Stir in rye flour until about the consistency of pancakes. Bake in buttered cups or saucers half an hour.

Baked Muffins: One cup and a half of sour milk, half a cup of butter, two eggs, one teaspoonful of soda, (you can use sweet milk and cream of tartar.) Stir to a stiff batter, and bake in muffin rings. They are best made with one cup of cream and one cup of sour milk.

Crumpets: Mix a gill of yeast with two quarts of water, just lukewarm, to which add sufficient flour to make a thinnish batter, and let it stand six hours in a warm place: whenever raised stir it well with a wooden spoon and let it remain four hours longer; then bake in muffin rings.

Horseradish vinegar: One-quarter of pound of scraped horseradish, one ounce of minced garlic, one drachm of Cayenne, one quart of vinegar. Put all the ingredients into a bottle, which shake well every day for a fortnight. When it is thoroughly steeped, strain and bottle, and it will be fit for use immediately. This will be found an agreeable relish to cold beef, etc.

Sally Lunn: Seven cups of sifted flour, half a teacup of butter warmed in a pint of milk, one salt spoonful of salt and three well-beaten eggs, two tablespoonfuls brewers' yeast; if the yeast is homemade use twice as much. Pour this into square pans to rise, and then bake it before it sours.

Receipt for pickle: Scald the pickleing brine every three days for two weeks, then soak out the brine in fresh water; wipe them dry and put them in a liquid composed of two gallons of vinegar, four ounces of black pepper, four of ginger, two of tumeric, two of cloves, two of allspice, two of mace, two tablespoonfuls of celery-seed, one large handful of horseradish, one of garlic, three lemons, sliced, and two pounds of brown sugar. The spices should be beaten. Pickle made made by the above receipt took the premium at one of the Richmond fairs, and is recommended for use.

FARMERS' COLUMN.

One or two applications of buttermilk will destroy lice on cattle, and is a safe remedy to drive off the vermin.

In pruning very young pear trees, the object should be to encourage the growth of wood in proper directions, rather than the production of fruit at the expense of retarding the development of the trees.

A New Yorker says that cows should be salted every morning, and if in the stable, before foddering, but never after taking water. This is the practice of the best stock-keepers in Switzerland, and he thinks much preferable to salting them once or twice a week, or to keeping it constantly within their reach.

Indian Muffins.—One tablespoonful of yeast, one pint of water, flour enough to make a thick batter, and let them raise through the night. In the morning add one pint of Indian meal, a coffee cup and a half of milk, a teaspoonful of soda, some salt and two eggs. Beat the mixture well before putting it into the rings to bake.

Trimming Shade Trees.—Such farmers as have shade trees in different parts of their farm can improve their appearance greatly, as well as add to their utility, by cutting the top branch off. This will cause the branches of the tree to spread horizontally, and render it much better adapted to the purpose for which it was intended.

A Correspondent of the Western Rural thinks that the ground is the best bed for hogs, as he thinks it warm enough, and a valuable disinfectant.—To prevent the hogs making distinct beds, he advises laying down flat stones, and then covering them with four or five inches of earth. He presupposes a good house, built of brick or stone sides.

Fowls eating each others' feathers.—This propensity only come to those that are in confinement. Birds that are at liberty never fall into it. It arises from a bad state of body; this is caused by confinement and deprivation of something they get when they are at liberty. We speak practically. Ours are cured by lettuce and sods of fresh earth.—Farm Journal.

Beet Sugar.—The Fond du Lac (Wis.) Commonwealth, gives a description of a beet-sugar factory which employs twenty-four hands, and has a capacity for making one thousand pounds of sugar daily. The owners planted eighty acres of beets the present year, and the next propose to increase their area to one hundred and sixty. The roots, and the success of the enterprise is deemed beyond question.

The successful management of a farm especially in this age of progress, requires thought not less than hard work. Something more needs to be done than scatter the seed and reap the harvest. What to plant, in order to be tolerably certain to obtain a good price for the product; in what soil, as to quality and rotation of crops; and just when to cultivate, and with what implements, secure the best results—all these things need to be considered. The comparative leisure of winter is the best time to think of these questions. Now is the time to lay out the spring campaign, and to prepare the means for prosecuting it vigorously.

The best food for horses affected with the heaves, is such as is nutritious and succulent, and should be condensed into as small a compass as possible! Dry and ducty hay is injurious, and makes the animal wheeze distressingly. Moistened ground feed, potatoes, carrots, and ruta bagas, are the best food for animals having the disease, and if the water to drink would be given to the horse out of a cask with slaked lime at the bottom and stirred occasionally, it would materially lessen the difficulty of breathing. Persons owning horses afflicted with the heaves, and neglecting to feed and and treat them properly, should be visited by Mr. Bergh or some other member of that humane society, and admonished that it is contrary to law to oppress poor dumb brutes.

Many thousands of dollars are lost annually in consequence of planting poor seed. Acres of old and worthless carrot, beet, onion, and similar seeds are sown every year, which might be avoided if every one who is growing such crops would take the trouble of testing a few of the seeds previous to sowing. The loss of preparing the ground and sowing is usually far more than the cost of the seeds, and generally when their worthlessness is discovered the season is too far advanced to remedy the evil.

It is a very easy matter to start a few seeds in pots or boxes, and determine what proportion will grow, without running the risk of losing a crop in addition to the cost of preparing the soil and sowing—Hearth and Home.

To Rejuvenate Old Grapevines.—The editor of the Practicul Farmer says:—Having on our premises, planted by former owners, probably twenty years ago, half a dozen old grapevines, with large weather-beaten trunks of stems, which made annually but little new wood, and yielded but very few poor grapes, two seasons ago we cut off

Thursday Morning, March 10, 1870.

A GREAT CRY AND LITTLE WOOL.

Some people are constitutional grumblers. The editor of the Inquirer is one of them. It is not in his nature to be satisfied with anything unless it emanates from his own brilliant and comprehensive mind. With the exception of that wonderful panacea for all political ills, the Fifteenth Amendment, we doubt whether any measure of either party, since the close of the war, has met the entire approbation of John Lutz, Esquire. The Democrats especially can do nothing to suit the rigid morality and transcendental political economy of this strait-laced editorial philosopher. From national politics to the management of the county finances, he finds nothing in the record of the Democratic party worthy of his approval. It is his business to decry his political opponents, right or wrong, and he sticks close to his trade. We are, therefore, not surprised to find the Inquirer of week before last, an article maliciously intended to bring into suspicion the Democratic management of the county treasury. We quote from this article, as follows:

"On the first of January, 1868, there was a cash balance of $11,603 31 in the hands of the County Treasurer. On the first of January, 1870, the amount had increased to $13,866 96. Who is to have the benefit of the use of this sum the present year? We find no account of interest for use for the $11,603 31 of last year in the statement recently published. What became of it?"

This is susceptible of easy explanation; and the querulous editor who asks these questions will find that if he had held his peace, his party would have fared all the better. Some years since a "Republican" legislature repealed the State tax on real estate. A great flourish of trumpets has been made over this achievement and the Inquirer man blew his horn as loud as any of his brethren. Now, one of the results of this repeal is that the State Treasurer each and every year dips his hand into the county treasuries and takes therefrom such amounts as he sees fit. The county commissioners, in laying the tax, are, therefore, compelled to make such a levy as will cover the probable demands of the State Treasurer. They can do this only at random, because they are not informed, when they lay tax, what amount will be required of them by that official. For this "guess-work" the bungling legislation of the "Republican" party is responsible. Nevertheless, the commissioners of this county "guess" pretty well. Last year, as will be seen by the report of the county auditors, the State Treasurer was paid $6,371.79. He demanded some $1,700 more which the commissioners have thus far refused to pay. When this sum is deducted from the $11,603.-31 in the treasury at the settlement of Jan. 1, 1869, it will be seen that but a little more than five thousand dollars remained in the hands of the county treasurer to meet the current expenses of the county. Owing to another delectable invention of a "Republican" legislature, the election of an Additional Law Judge, those expenses are greatly increased and rendered of an uncertain and fluctuating character.—It is impossible for the commissioners to know in advance how many special and adjourned courts are to be held during the year. In order that the dear people may not be deprived of the great "Republican" blessings conferred on them by these numerous courts, it is necessary that a sufficient surplus should be in the treasury to meet the possible cost of holding them. By the time the State Treasurer gets his dividend and the expenses of the extra courts are paid out of the balance of $13,866.96 it is not very likely that much of it will remain to be put out at interest, either by the county treasurer or the commissioners.

To complete the explanation of the fact that there is a larger balance in the treasury at the beginning of the year than formerly, it is only necessary to state that the taxes are now collected between the first of June and the thirty-first of December. During the first five months of the year, no taxes at all are collected. Hence it is necessary that there should be about $14,000 in the treasury at the beginning of the year to meet the current expenses of the county during those first five months.

If the editor of the Inquirer would do the people of Bedford county a service, if he is really desirous of lightening the burden of taxation under which they are struggling, let him demand of his political friends in the legislature a proper correction of the outrageous statute under which the State Treasurer at present reaches into the county treasuries and seizes such sums as he pleases to take, and furthermore, let him agitate the repeal of the Act of Assembly which provides for an Additional Law Judge for this Judicial District. Let him begin the work of reform in his own household, and until he accomplishes that, let him cease his grumbling.

THE ONLY SALVATION.

For years the little leaders of the so-called Republican party, have assured their followers that the charge made by the Democrats against them, namely, that it was their design to force black suffrage on the country, was false, and in many cases they went so far as to declare that if their party ever proved itself capable of doing so monstrous a thing, they would themselves be the first to leave it. How can these men look the people whom they have so wantonly deceived, in the face?—How can they ask any one to believe their statements in the future? The Fifteenth Amendment has been foisted upon the country by the leaders of the Republican party. Next fall every African in Pennsylvania will go to the polls and ask that his ballot shall be received by the election-officers. In less than a year negroes will sit in the jury-box in the Bedford courts. Now, if the people had been permitted to vote on this question and had decided that the right of suffrage and other privileges consequent upon it, should be granted to the African, there could be no complaint. The voice of the people is the voice of God. But the the Republican leaders have impudently ignored the popular will, and, therefore, have impiously defied the judgment of Heaven. To their reckless disregard of the rights of the people and their sacrilegious attempt to equalize races of men whom God has created unequal, are added the false promises of their platforms, their speeches and their press. They are convicted of the triple crime of betraying the people, of seizing into their own hands the power to regulate Suffrage and of attempting to correct and overrule the Almighty in His divine arrangement of the plan of creation.—The iniquity of such wickedness cannot stand. Certain, swift and terrible punishment is sure to overtake it.—The only question which remains to be decided, is, Shall the judgment of outraged Heaven fall upon the Nation, or shall it be visited only upon the heads of the guilty authors of the crime? Either the Republican leaders must be overthrown, or the community at large must suffer for this offence against the rights of the people and the laws of God. This is the only alternative. The only salvation of this country from the curse of a mongrel race, mongrel society and a mongrel government, is in the early and complete and final overthrow of the present leaders of the so-called "Republican" party. This must, in some measure, be done by "Republicans" themselves. Whether, indeed, there remains enough righteousness in that political Sodom, to secure so great salvation, is a matter of the gravest doubt. But we shall see.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

Pursuant to notice a Convention of the Democrats of Bedford County was held at the Court House, on Tuesday night, March 1. The Covention was called to order by E. F. Kerr, Esq., Chairman of the County Committee. On motion P. G. MORGART, of Bloody Run, was appointed President, and J. G. Fisher, Secretary. The following resolutions, after some discussion, were adopted:

Resolved, That the Rules of the Democratic party adopted in the year 1869, be suspended for the present and that a county convention to consist of one delegate from each election district be called to meet at the Court house in Bedford, on Tuesday evening of April court, for the purpose of determining the propriety of changing the rules at present governing the party.

Resolved, That the chairman of the Democratic County Committee is hereby instructed to give notice through the columns of the Bedford GAZETTE that an election will be held to elect delegates to said Convention, in the several districts of the county, on Saturday, the 23d day of April, 1870.

The Convention then adjourned.

P. G. MORGART, Pres't.

J. G. FISHER, Sec'y.

THE economy and wisdom of the present Pennsylvania legislature are most happily evinced in the obstinate refusal to publish at public charge a record of proceedings, and in the retention of a horde of pasters and folders, who are clinging to the rim of the treasury chest. With the non-publication of proceedings these fellows have nothing to do but sleep the hours away until the Speaker's hammer shall rap the hour of final adjournment. Yet it is gravely proposed in the House to add two hundred dollars to the pay of these drones! When the yeas and nays shall be ordered, the public will learn, even without a published journal of proceedings, the names of the members who will have the hardihood to thus shamefully vote away their money. Let the pasters and folders be sent home now, and let the great legislative scandal, with which they are connected, immediately be suppressed.

P. S.—Since the above was put in type, we learn that the proposition to vote extra pay to the officers was defeated in the House, principally through the vigilance of the democrats.

Cairo scandal is busy over a flirtation between the Khedive and an American wife of the period.

GOLD down to 113! In the money market the greatest excitement prevails on account of the steady descent of gold. At the rate of decline which is going on, the country may soon hope to reach specie payments, unless the policy of the advocates of expansion shall unhappily prevail in Congress, and give speculators, with an increase of paper currency, further opportunities for enhancing the prices of all the necessaries of life. The fear that the Supreme Court may interfere with the recent decision on the legal tender question, has, thus far not had any effect in disturbing the money market, and the public need now be under little apprehension that a successful effort will be made to obtain a reversal. The only effect of the agitation of the question will be to increase the distresses of such debtors as come under the operation of the law, and by disturbing the money market, postpone the long wished return to specie payments.

THERE is a bill before the State Senate which proposes to allow Canal and Turnpike Companies to abandon such parts of their lines as they deem useless to the public. Under this bill, should it become a law, the Pennsylvania Canal Company might abandon their line at a point east of Huntingdon and thence westward, which would have the effect of compelling shippers of coal from the Broad Top region and other shippers of freight in this section, to rely solely on the railroad for transportation. The increase in charges on freights which would thus be occasioned would be a serious incumbrance to business men in this neighborhood, as well as to the coal-shippers of Broad Top. It is, therefore, very important that our representatives in the legislature be on their guard when this bill comes up on its passage. If it is to pass at all, it should be amended so as to require the company to keep the canal open from Huntingdon eastward.

It is intimated that it will soon thunder along the whole political sky.—Startling developments are expected to be made in connection with the Postoffice Contract Bureau. Certain irregularities, it is alleged, have occurred in the postal contract business, and one of the House committees is said to have "smelled out" evidence that will make certain officials wish that they were somebody else. All the departments want overhauling, and more particularly the office of Internal Revenue, in the Treasury department.

THE town elections throughout the State of New York show uniform Democratic gains. In the election held last week, Newburg elected a Democratic Mayor by a handsome majority, and Ithaca, a full board of Democratic local officers for the first time in many years. The Democratic revival has spread over into Vermont. Burlington has been swept by the Democracy for the first time since it became a chartered city.

Full particulars of the loss of the United States steamer Oneida have been received by the Japanese mail at San Francisco. The accident took place on the 23d of January, at 7 o'clock in the evening, when the officers were at supper. The Bombay struck the Oneida on the starboard, abaft the gangway, and crushed a great hole in her. Two men were killed outright by the collision. The Bombay continued on her way without heeding the appeal from the lost ship for help. All the boats but the life-boat were crushed. This was manned by Surgeon Suddards and a small crew. The Oneida sank in ten minutes, carrying down the heroic Commander Williams, who declared that he would not desert his vessel and nearly three-fourths of his comrades.—Of the 176 persons on board, only fifty-six were saved. Among the latter were only three officers—Master Yates, Dr. Suddards, and the captain's clerk, Mr. Crowninshield. The most remarkable circumstance attending the disaster is the declaration of the crew and passengers of the Bombay that they knew nothing of the collision, and had heard none of the distress guns fired by the Oneida.

Later London papers contribute the continuation of the proceedings in the Mordaunt divorce case. The evidence of Sir Charles Mordaunt is interesting as indicating the general feeling in regard to the character of the Prince of Wales. Sir Charles testified that before his marriage to Lady Mordaunt he knew of her intimacy with the Prince and that after the marriage he warned her against continuing the acquaintance. "I told her," said he, "that I had heard in various quarters certain circumstances connected with his previous character that caused me to wish her to break off with him." Notwithstanding this wish, Lady Mordaunt continued to receive the Prince without the knowledge of her husband, until the time she made the voluntary confession that a criminal intimacy had been existing between them. Sir Charles also testified to the discovery of a batch of letters and a valentine from the Prince to his wife. The court loyally refused to permit the letters to be read.

The Pope has "secularized" Father Hyacinthe. This act releases the popular preacher from his monastic vows, and throws him upon the world as a simple priest. The secularization is said to give general satisfaction in Rome.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, March 1.

In the Senate of the United States yesterday the Vice President announced the appointment of Senator Revels (black) to the Committees of Education and Labor. The Funding bill was discussed to the hour of adjournment, Mr. Sherman making an elaborate speech. Mr. Davis gave notice that he would move to recommit the bill with instructions to the committee. In the House of Representatives, Butler, of Massachusetts, introduced a bill to provide for the enforcement of Judgments in lawful money of the United States only. Mr. Palmer offered a preamble and resolution instructing the Committee on Banking and Currency to report a general law authorizing the establishment of national banks, unrestricted in aggregate circulation, fixed on such an issue of United States bonds as shall induce the lowest possible reduction of the rate of interest. The House refused to second the previous question, and the resolution went over till next Monday. Mr. Spink, of Dakota, offered a resolution that the "interests of the country require such tariff for revenue upon foreign imports as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufacturers, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country." This resolution created a flutter in the House. Mr. Wood moved to lay it on the table, but the motion was negatived. The resolution was adopted—yeas 107, nays 48; a majority of Democrats and a minority of the Republicans voting in the negative. The House then went into committee on the Indian Appropriation bill. General Sheridan's atrocity was discussed with some bitterness, irrespective of party lines.

WASHINGTON, March 2.

In the United States Senate yesterday, the Funding bill was further discussed, and Mr. Corbett, of Oregon, made an elaborate and prosy speech in favor of an amendment of his own. The negro Senator, Revels, made his debut in the presentation of a petition from sundry negroes in Philadelphia, praying for the passage of a bill enforcing the fifteenth amendment. Mr. Howell, the new Iowa Senator, also made his first speech in support of a resolution against the grasping spirit of the railroad monopolies. In the House of Representatives the Senate's amendment to the Post Route Bill was taken from the Speaker's desk and concurred in. Mr. Bird (Dem.), of New Jersey, attempted to get the Sheridan atrocity before the House in the shape of a resolution calling upon the President for information, but a Radical member objected. The bill extending to three years the time for keeping distilled liquors in bond was passed with an amendment fixing the amount to be paid after the first year at one cent per gallon. Mr. Logan from the military Committee reported a resolution declaring John T. Deweese, the cadetship selling carpet-bagger, who has evaded expulsion by resignation, unworthy of a seat in the House. After a long debate the House decided to instruct the committee to continue the investigation only so far as it affected members of this Congress and other officers of the government. The majority and minority reports of the Banking Committee on the gold corner investigation were reported.

WASHINGTON, March 3.

The Funding bill was debated again in the U. S. Senate yesterday, Mr. Sumner making an elaborate speech. The joint resolution authorizing the Northern Pacific Railroad Company to issue its bonds for the construction of its road, and to secure the same by mortgage, was also discussed, without action. In both Houses new railroad land jobs were introduced, and in the House one of the swindles met with a vigorous opposition from the Democrats. In the House the bill authorizing the construction and maintenance of a bridge over Niagara River, at Buffalo, was passed. Mr. Cox made a personal explanation, denying the story of a sensation paper in this city of his having sold a cadetship. The Indian appropriation bill was discussed in committee and nearly finished. Mr. Maynard offered a resolution of inquiry into the loss of the Oneida, which was adopted.

WASHINGTON, March 4.

In the United States Senate yesterday Mr. Trumbull introduced his bill to change the Supreme Court judicial circuits, and elicited a warm discussion. The effect of the bill will be to prohibit the confirmation of Judge Bradley and compel the President to select a carpet-bag judge from the South. The Senate resumed the discussion of the Funding bill, and listened to elaborate speeches by Senators Morrill, of Vermont, Morton and Sumner. In the House of Representatives, Mr. Ingersoll attempted to procure the passage of a resolution calling upon the Secretary of Interior for information about the "massacre" of the Piegan Indians. Mr. Stevenson, of Ohio, who has taken upon himself the hard task of apologizing for General Sheridan, objected to the word "massacre," and refused to permit the resolution to be entertained. He offered it himself subsequently in another shape. Mr. Ingersoll introduced the New York and Washington Air Line Railroad bill, and endeavored to rush it through the House, but several Democratic members made so much opposition that it was forced over the morning hour. The bill will probably pass the House, as it has before, and be throttled in the Senate. The Tariff bill being under discussion, Mr. Brooks, of New York, opened the fight for the free-traders with a long and very able speech. Before the House adjourned an amusing, though by no means unusual, quarrel took place between Ben Butler and a brother Radical. Butler, it seems reported back from the reconstruction Committee a bill for the admission of the Georgia Congressmen. Mr. Farnsworth, one of the committee denied that Butler had authority from the Committee to do so. Butler regarded this as an attack on his veracity, and finally the Speaker called upon the House to decide whether the Massachusetts statesman spoke the truth or not. Just as a vote was about to be taken, Butler yielded to a friend to introduce a bill, and thus dodged a verdict. The House adjourned without further action.

WASHINGTON, March 5.

In the United Senate yesterday Mr. Trumbull's bill changing the circuits of the Supreme Court was considered, and speeches were made by Mr. Trumbull, and Mr. Sumner moved to take up his bill repealing the charter of the Medical Society of the District of Columbia. It is by means of this bill that he proposes to punish the white physicians of Washington for their refusal to consult professionally with negro doctors. Greatly to Sumner's disgust, his motion was lost by a vote of 21 to 26. In the House of Representatives, Mr. Butler, of Massachusetts, opened the discussion on the Georgia bill. In the course of his speech he intimated that as soon as Georgia was reconstructed to his mind he should turn his attention to Tennessee. He proposed to exhibit to the Tennesseans the power of Congress to regulate the internal affairs of a State. Mr. Farnsworth (Rep.) made a speech against the bill, and it went over until to-day, when it will be debated, to the exclusion of other business.

NEWS ITEMS.

France has at last taken a very decided stand upon the question of the Papal infallibility. The Minister of Foreign Affairs, Count Napoleon Daru, has written an official note to the French representative at Rome, declaring that if the obnoxious dogma is proclaimed France will withdraw her troops from the Holy City. This is emphatic. The Pope must now choose between disappointment and revolution. What he will do in this dilemma is uncertian; but we learn, direct from Rome, that he is still confident of his ability to carry the proposition for infallibility. The London Times says that Spain and other Catholic powers have forwarded notes similar to that of Count Daru. It is reported in Brussels that so far the ultramontanes have been unable to induce the American bishops to declare for the dogma. The sessions of the Ecumenical Council will be resumed next week, when this important question, which seems to threaten the peace of the world as well as of the church, will receive some solution.

From the daily Scranton Democrat we learn of a terrible calamity caused by the explosion of a boiler in the Lackawana Iron and Coal Company's blast furnace at that place, on Monday evening, 28th ult., which carried death and desolation to many a hearth stone. The Democrat describes the explosion as being one of terriffic force, and the scene as being most heartrending and appalling. Ten persons are reported killed, nineteen wounded, and many of the wounded, dying. This seems to be the fourth terrible disaster at the same furnaces, the previous ones being even more terrible than the last. At the first, one hundred and ten persons were killed and wounded; at the second, forty-four were killed and wounded at the third, thirty-three were killed and wounded, and now twenty-nine have been killed and wounded.

More royal scandals. This time the Spanish Bourbons are in the pillory.—Ex-Queen Isabella has her family troubles as well as her royal sister Victoria. Prince Girgenti, of Naples, who married Isabella's eldest daughter three years ago, is a worthless roue and spendthrift, and has already squandered his wife's dowry. The telegraph announces that the unfortunate young woman has begun legal proceedings against him. This is not the worst, however. The Queen's husband has taken it upon himself to embargo all her ex-Majesty's private property in Spain to prevent the waste of the children's inheritance. The Queen has been living almost riotously since the beginning of her exile, and this action on the part of her despised lord was probably necessary to save something from the wreck for the future maintenance of the family.

A party of about twenty-five masked men surrounded the Sheriff's house at Harrisonburg, La., about 1 o'clock Sunday night, 1st inst. and caused the Sheriff and his family to retire, when they entered the house and killed Colonel Charles Jones and his eldest son. His youngest son, who was in the house, is supposed to have saved himself by leaping into the Ouachita River and swimming across. They were in the custody of the Sheriff, charged with murdering General Sidell a short time since on board the steamer St. Mary's, at Jones' Landing, Ouachita River. The party of maskers are supposed to be friends of Sidell.

A disease as fatal as Asiatic cholera broke out in Albion, Erie county, Pennsylvania, a few days ago, and in less than a week five grown people died, each of the victims dying in from twelve to seventy hours after the first symptoms. It is called the "spotted fever," from the fact that the victims are covered with crimson spots. The first symptom is a violent chill, which is accompanied with vomiting and pains in the head, neck, and back.—The persons who were first attacked all died, but the more recent cases have not proved fatal.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered, several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge,) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. The object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address REV EDWARD A. WILSON,

Williamsburg, Kings County, New York.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work: then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs and the patient outgrows the disease and get, well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and starts the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the Alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills, or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has Consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood: then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompanying each, make it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr Schenck, unless the patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond Street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover Street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

The most difficult punctuation is to put a stop to gossips' tongues. It would be well enough to put a period to every one's existence. That would stop them.

A large frame hotel, known as the National Hall, was totally destroyed by fire, at Huntingdon, on Saturday evening last. The fire is supposed to have originated from the bursting of a coal oil lamp.

Now, boys, here's a valuable hint.—A western boy who went skating against his father's will, stuffed his clothes with old newspapers before he returned home, and his stern parent's chastisement didn't amount to the value of a flea bite on a dead dog.

THE MORRISON'S COVE R. R.—The Hollidaysburg and Newry people are now contending for the location of this road, both parties claiming to have raised a sufficient amount of money to insure the grading and ballasting of the track. The case is now before the authorities who are to decide in the matter, and we shall say nothing more about it for the present—Altoona Tribune.

The investigating committee at Washington have become so much alarmed at the large number of loil scoundrels that have been unearthed, that a "white-washing" committee has been appointed to save many prominent radicals and prevent the rotten Congress from falling to pieces. It would not do for the people to know too much. But rascality, like murder, will out, some day.

MORE BOUNTY.—Soldiers who enlisted for one year and were discharged by competent authority before the expiration of their term of service, are entitled to $100 bounty, under a recent Act of Congress and a decision of the Attorney General. Other bills are pending before Congress, which, when passed, will give bounties to a large number of persons who have not heretofore been entitled to them.

"OLD AND NEW" is the title of a new candidate for public favor in the literary line. The March number is before us. The magazine is ably edited, and contains articles from the pens of New England's best writers. In fact, the periodical is thoroughly radical in all its views, and is the best production of the kind we have yet seen. Published by H. O. Houghton & Co., Boston, and Hurd & Houghton 459 Broome Street, New York.

ATTEMPTED ESCAPE.—Bohner, one of the Huntingdon murderers made a desperate effort to escape from jail on last Friday. He was however overpowered by the guard, who were assisted by a prisoner named Butler Bohner received some serious, but it is thought not dangerous wounds.—Butler is to be rewarded for his services by being let out of jail, where he is serving out a sentence.

Our young friend, J. Harry Hutton, has again returned to Philadelphia and is with his old firm, Messrs. A. A. Shumway & Co., in their new store, 434 Market street, South Side, half way between fourth and fifth. Harry boasts that they have decidedly the handsomest Shoe house in Phila., and we know that it is well filled with desirable goods. The young man understands his business, and those who favor him with their orders can depend on having them filled in a satisfactory manner. To those of our Merchants in the county, who have not tried this house, we would cordially recommend them to do so. They will find a full line of cheap and desirable goods. Send in your orders and give the young man a trial.

A CAPITAL NEW NOVEL.—"Red as a Rose is She," a new novel by the author of "Cometh Up as a Flower," is a very vivid and charming love-story, in which the characters are drawn with unusual vigor, and the incidents have probability and freshness. "Cometh Up as a Flower," and "Not Wissly, but too Well," the preceding novels by the same author, a tracted no little attention on account of their spirited character-sketching; they exhibited, indeed, in this particular, a really striking power. 'Red as a Rose' has the same quality. A better drawn heroine, or one more truly full of a delicious human nature, no recent fiction has supplied. The interest of the story is most absorbing, and altogether it is the freshest and most readable book of the season. Published by D. Appleton & Co., New York, who will mail a copy to any address, postpaid, on receipt of sixty cents; or three books by the same author, for $1.50.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The special court held by Judge Rowe last week was a slim affair. A number of cases set down for trial at the beginning of the week, had been tried at the regular term, so no jury was called till Wednesday. The following cases were disposed of:—

William B. Huffman vs. George W. Gump. Summons care assumpsit.—Jury found for the Plaintiff, $93.79.

Henry D. Mock vs. William Hammer. Summons trespass. Quare clausum fregit. Jury find for the Plaintiff $6.00 damages.

John B. Weaver vs. John Bowser. Sci. fa. to revive Judgment. Jury find for the Defendant. Same day motion for new trial filed.

On the argument list the following disposition of cases was made:

Broad Top School District vs. Coaldale Bor. School District. Leave to amend bill filed and demurrer overruled and the Defendant is assigned to answer the bill on or before the first day of next Term.

Philip Mock vs. Abraham Dull, William Sleek, et al. Inquisition verdict set aside, and judgment opened, and Defendants let into a defense by payment of all costs.

SPOOKS.—The Duncansville correspondent of the Hollidaysburg Register is responsible for the following first class spook story:

Our neighboring county of Bedford for the last couple of years, has been treated to a first class supernatural story, which kept all hands on the qui vive, but it has subsided, and our own little Blair takes the bell. To curtail matters, a short distance from the Allegheny Forge, in Juniata township resided a family of the cognomen of Flynn, consisting of Flynn, pere Flynn mere and Flynn junior. In the course of nature, Flynns pere and mere were gathered to their fathers, leaving the paternal acres in the possession of junior Flynn. Now comes the gist of the story. One night since the demise of Flynn mere, the young man was residing alone, and on returning home observed twenty-two candles burning on the table in the room. When he entered, all became dark. On another occasion, he came in about an hour after dark, when he saw a candle burning as before, but which went out again immediately. He then went to his room, blew his own candle out, went to bed and to sleep. He awoke in the night, when, lo! the candle was burning again. He blew it out the third time, when finally the beams of Sol dispelled the ghostly visitant. Other responsible citizens have seen the same phenomena, among whom are Mr. John Arged, Mr. Yingling, and others Here is a chance now for those fond of the supernatural or wierdlike, and we hope it will be thoroughly investigated. The house is open to the inspection of all. More anon.

CURE FOR COUGH OR COLD.—As soon as there is the slightest uneasiness of the Chest, with difficulty of breathing, or indications of Cough, take during the day a few "Brown's Bronchial Troches." Containing demulcent ingredients, they allay Pulmonary Irritation. Have them in readiness upon the first appearance of a Cold or Cough.

A GOOD MOVE.—The friends of education in Southampton township have lately established a circulating library, which at present contains 275 volumes. The head-quarters of this institution is at the school house near Purcell's store, with three "missions" or branches; one at Green Ridge, one in Buck Valley and the third at the National Pike in Maryland—where books can be had by those who conform to the rule of the association. The payment of fifty cents initiation fee, and fifteen cents a month, entitles any one to the use of two books a week. The library comprises the whole of Dicken's and Scott's works and a fair selection of historical, biographical and miscellaneous books.

We are glad to announce that the Southampton Circulating Library is an established fact, notwithstanding the fierce opposition it encountered from a certain stupid and fanatical quarter. Men of the very party which was wont to make that township the subject of all the slang phrases which they could invent, because her people remained true to the teachings of the fathers of the Republic, were loudest in their opposition to the diffusion of knowledge through the proposed library, and denounced it as a scheme to warp the minds of the people, which woul eventually terminate in ruthlessly tearing the "State of Southampton" from the Union, and plunge her society into chaos and confusion!

But the opposition of the "all-the-intelligence" party was of no avail, and the enlightened democracy will read on and continue to vote against the fanaticism that at present has its destructive clutches on the "best government that the world ever saw." Success to them!

FROM MIDDLE WOODBERRY.—Proceedings of the Teachers, Institute of Middle Woodberry Township.—Institute convened Saturday Feb. 26th, with the following corps of teachers present, viz: Messrs. Frederick Keagy, F. S. Baker, G. Price, J. A. Baird, D. Price, W. H. Clouse, M. M. Ritchey and B. F. Woodcock. The morning exercises consisted of a drill in Mental Arithmetic by Mr. S. Price, a drill in English Grammar by Mr. M. M. Ritchey, a drill in Reading by Mr. B. F. Woodcock, a drill in Orthography by Mr. F. S Keagy and an interesting lecture on the Principles of Penmanship by Mr. D. Price. After which Institute adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock P. M.

The afternoon exercises were opened with vocal music, in which all participated. Mr. F. S. Baker then conducted a drill in History, which was followed by a drill in Geography and one in Written Arithmetic by Mr. D. Price and Mr. J. A. Baird respectively. Mr. W. H. Clouse delivered an oration, and F. S. Keagy read an essay. The Woman Suffrage question was then taken up and discussed in the affirmative by Messrs. Woodcock, Clouse, Baker and Baird and on the negative by Messrs. D. Price Ritchey, S. Price and Keagy, the committee deciding in favor of the negative.

The following resolutions were then unanimously adopted.

1. Resolved, that we as a body of teachers will positively not teach another term in Bedford county except the school term be extended to six months.

2. Resolved, that vocal music be taught in the common schools of our County and should be made a requisite on the teachers certificate.

3. Resolved, that we heartily approve of the movement now afloat for the removal of the Normal School to the Borough of Woodberry.

4. Resolved, that it would be to the interest of every teacher to read two or more of the leading educational journals of our country.

5. Resolved, that we tender our sincere thanks to the treasurer of the board of directors for his punctuality on pay day, and to the board in general for their exertions in supplying the teachers with the means necessary for making the schools a success.

On motion Institute adjourned sine die.

Havana correspondents write that the Cubans have begun to retaliate in kind on the Spaniards. General Quesada, before he was superseded by General Jordan, ordered all the prisoners within his immediate command to be shot, and 125 Spaniards were quickly sent to their last homes. When Jordan took command he shot 300 prisoners. The black flag is flying on both sides now, and a war of extermination has set in.

THE GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY.
DR. WALKER'S
CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS.

More than 500,000 persons bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY? They are not a VILE FANCY DRINK, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits, and refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter, and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell.

$1000 will be given for an incurable case, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poisons or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, and Gout, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Livers, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful.—Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. Send for a circular.

THEY ARE A GENTLE PURGATIVE AS WELL AS A TONIC, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion, or Inflamation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

Cleans the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

In Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, these Bitters have no equal. For full directions read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

THE AMERICAN FAMILY KNITTING MACHINE is presented to the public as the most Simple, Durable, and Compact and Cheap Knitting Machine ever invented.
PRICE ONLY 25 DOLLARS.
This machine will run either backward or forward with equal facility; makes the same stitch as by hand, but far superior in every respect.
Will knit 20,000 Stiches in one minute, and do perfect work, leaving every knot on the inside of the work. It will knit a pair of stockings (any size) in less than half an hour. It will knit Close or Open, Plain or Ribbed work, with any kind of coarse or fine woolen yarn, or cotton, silk or linen. It will knit stockings with double heel and toe, drawers, hoods, sacks, smoking caps, comforts, purses, muffs, fringe, afghans, nubias, undersleeves, mittens skating caps, lamp wicks, mats, cord, undershirts, shawls, jackets, cradle blankets, leggings, suspenders, wristers, tidies, tippits, tufted work, and in fact an endless variety of articles in every day use, as well as for ornament.
FROM 5 TO 10 DOLLARS PER DAY
Can be made by any one with the American Knitting Machine, knitting stockings, &c., while expert operators can even make more knitting fancy work, which always commands a ready sale. A person can readily knit from twelve to fifteen pairs of stockings per day, the profit on which will not be less than forty cents per pair.
FARMERS Can sell their wool at only forty to fifty cents per pound; but by getting the wool made into yarn at a small expense, and knitting it into socks, two or three dollars per pound may be realized. On receipt of $25 we will forward a machine as ordered.
We wish to procure active AGENTS in every section of the United States and Canadies, to whom the most liberal inducements will be offered. Address AMERICAN KNITTING MACHINE COMPANY, Boston Mass., or St. Louis, Mo. feb24w4

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or Green SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Billious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

THE ONLY RELIABLE CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA
IN THE KNOWN WORLD.

Dr. Wishart's Great American Dyspepsia Pills and Pine Tree Tar Cordial are a positive and infallable cure for Dyspepsia in its most aggravated form and no matter of how long standing.

They penetrate the secret abode of this terrible disease, and exterminate to it, root and branch, forever.

They alleviate more agony and silent suffering than tongue can tell.

They are noted for curing the most desperate and hopeless cases, when every known means fail to afford relief.

No form of Dyspepsia or Indigestion can resist their penetrating power,

DR. WISHART'S
PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL.

It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medical properties are retained. It invigorates the digestive organs and restores the appetite. It strengthens the debilitated system. It purifies and enriches the blood, and expels from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds on the lungs. It dissolves the mucus or phlegm which stops the air passages of the lungs Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain and subduing inflammation. It is the result of years of study and experiment, and it is offered to the afflicted with positive assurance of its power to cure the following diseases if the patient has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure:

Consumption of the Lungs, Cough, Sore Throat and Breast, Bronchitis, Liver Complaint, Blind and Bleeding Piles, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Diptheria, &c.

A medical expert, holding honorable collegiate diplomas, devotes his entire time to the examination of patients at the office parlors. Associated with him are three consulting physicians of acknowledged eminence, whose services are given to the public free of charge.

This opportunity is offered by no other institution in the country.

Letters from any part of the country, asking advice, will be promptly and gratuitously responded to. Where convenient, remittances should take the shape of MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adeertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur player. in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

THE WEEKLY WORLD,

a large quarto sheet, printed throughout in large type and published every Wednesday morning, has now the largest circulation of any weekly newspaper in the United States, with possibly, a single exception. Among its prominent features are:

1. Its very full and accurate market reports, embracing the Live Stock markets of New York, Albany, Cambridge, and Philadelphia; and New York Country Produce Market, and General Produce Markets of the country; and full reports of the New York Money Market. Each of the reports are complied with great care, and contain the latest quotations that can be obtained up to the time of putting the paper to press.
2. Its Agricultural Department, which contains each week articles on practical and scientific farming that are of great value to American farmers. A special feature of this department is a weekly summary of the condition of the Hop Markets at home and abroad.
3. A very full report of the proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute is printed in each issue of the Weekly World, the day after the meeting of the Club. By this arrangement the report appears in the Weekly World one week in advance of its publication in any other weekly paper.
4. A portion of the Weekly World is reserved for family reading matter, including original and selected stories, poems, waifs of humor, and extracts from books and periodicals.—Particular attention will be given to this department during the year 1870.
5. A special feature of the Weekly World is a carefully compiled summary of the news of each week. It is made so complete that no one who reads it can fail of being well posted on all the important news of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY WORLD,

published Tuesday and Friday, is a large quarto sheet, containing all the news published in the Daily World, with the exception of such local reports as may be of no interest to non-residents of New York City. Its market reports are as full as those of the Daily edition, and it contain, besides interesting literary matter, on Friday of each week a full report of the Farmers' Club.

THE DAILY WORLD

contains all the news of the day that can be obtained by mail and telegraph from all parts of the world, and the thorough discussions of all topics of interest.

OUR NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. MIDDLETON'S

ONDERFUL PAIN CURE.

A sure remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Growing Pains, Sprains, Bruises, Stiffnes, of the Joints and all similar diseases.

This wonderful remedy is composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. There are no injurious substances used in its manufacture.

For assurance of its excellent properties, read the following certificates:

BEDFORD, May 8, 1869.

I take great pleasure in giving my testimony to the value of "Middleton's Wonderful Pain Cure." I have been a martyr to Rheumatism For two months previous to Feb. 25th, last, I was suffering intensely with pain so severe, that during all that time I had not one night of comfortable sleep. I could not put my hands to my face, could not comb my own hair, nor feed myself; but after having the Pain Cure applied once, I found relief enough to give me comfortable sleep, and with its steady use, I continued to get better, and now at the end of ten weeks from its first application, I have comparatively free use of my hands, sleep well and can attend to business. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used put together, and I cheerfully give this certificate of its value.

ELI M. FISHER.

BEDFORD, April 14, 1869.

Mr. W. W. Middleton,

This is to certify that I was taken with Rheumatism, in my right shoulder, on the evening of the 8th inst., so that I was unable to raise my hand to my face. I got some of your Pain Cure and applied it twice, and was entirely relieved. I would recommend to every one who suffers with
